

American Legion Auxiliary
District 6 Newsletter
December 2011

Dear Unit Presidents and Members:

First I want to thank all the Units of District 6 for being a host for the Membership tour and also the members that attended. It was a great success, your hospitality and food was great.

Rita Wagner is asking for prayers for the Department President's Prayer Book. She is asking that you send two copies so she can send one of them for the National President's book. Send them to Rita Wagner, P. O. Box 346, Elgin, NE 68636

Everyone begin creating your Poppy Hat for judging at your Unit level so you can bring them to the District Convention in Gibbon on March 11, 2012 for judging so it can be sent on to the State Convention in June.

Everyone please try and make it to Mid-Year Conference in Norfolk, NE on January 13-15, 2012. The state finals Oratorical Contest will be held Jan 14, 2012 at the Conference at 8:00 a.m. This is a great learning conference on the difference programs that the American Legion Auxiliary has to offer.

There was a great turn out for Dollar Days at the VAMC and the VA home. REMEMBER Gifts for Yanks on Tuesday, December 6, 2011 at 10:00 a.m. at the Grand Island VA Medical Center and 2:00 p.m. Grand Island Veterans Home. Gift Shop opening is December 12, 2011 Grand Island VA Medical Center. Please plan to arrive at the events one-half hour before the event time.

District 6 is in sixth place in membership as of November 21, 2011. The Units at 100% or over at this date are Ravenna, Shelton, Oconto, Wolbach, Wood River, Dannebrog, and Litchfield. Way to Go!!! There are several Units that are really close. Keep working I know every Unit can be 100%. If you need some help please feel free to call me at 1-308-836-2373. I have enclosed the latest membership data.

The Area B Oratorical Contest will be held December 11, 2011 at Albion, NE. 2:00 p.m.

I wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year. Please remember our Veterans and our Military and their families with our prayers and acts of kindness during the holidays and all through the year.

Lets strengthen Our Wheel as We Roll Forward With The American Legion Auxiliary and Family.

Remember The Reason For the Season
